

Da'Hanna Official Artist Bio (Christian Pop / Latin Pop Fusion)

Da'Hanna is a rising Christian pop artist from Riverview, Florida, known for her radiant voice, poetic storytelling, and bold faith. Her debut single, "Secret Flower," produced by Grammy and Latin Grammy-winning producer Lannie Battistini at Hands In Motion Music Productions, will be released on July 4, 2025. With a rich blend of Christian pop and Latin pop fusion, Secret Flower delivers a heartfelt anthem of spiritual awakening, divine identity, and freedom found in God's love. The song reflects Da'Hanna's journey from fear to faith—a hidden flower finally blooming in God's light.

Influenced by artists like Lauren Daigle, Hollyn, Riley Clemmons, Alicia Keys, and Beyoncé—with the resilience of Ciara and Megan Thee Stallion—Da'Hanna channels a powerful message of purpose and grace. Her sound is uniquely her own: Caribbean-rooted, emotionally nuanced, and unshakably anchored in truth. Da'Hanna began singing in middle school and continued cultivating her artistry through worship teams, songwriting, and learning piano and guitar. Her musical journey is grounded in healing, authenticity, and a call to inspire others.

Her voice is modern yet timeless—overflowing with hope and spiritual depth. With Secret Flower, Da'Hanna steps boldly into the light with a message for anyone who's ever felt unseen, unheard, or unsure of their worth: You were made to bloom.
